

Opportunity to join our Coaching Team

The last two years have seen a massive upsurge of interest in table tennis in our area. As a result of the continued growth of our coaching programme we now have this super opportunity for another licensed coach to be part of our success story

What we offer.....

- Part-time coaching (likely 4 – 5 hours per week initially)
- Focus primarily on beginners
- Other freelance work (one to one or group leading) may be available in the medium term

What you must offer.....

- Enthusiasm, energy and bags of patience
- Willingness and ability to lead group sessions
- Flexible approach and happy to support and work with players, parents and the existing coaching team
- A sound level of all-round table tennis skills
- Licensed coach qualifications
- Excellent communication skills
- Willingness to work on a self-employed basis

If that sounds like you, we'd love to hear from you!
